In one of his debates with the Pharisees, Jesus promises that those who abide in his word will know the truth and the truth will set them free. He then goes on to assert that “if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed.” The Apostle Paul exhorts the Galatians to “Stand fast . . . in the liberty by which Christ has made us free, and do not be entangled again with a yoke of bondage.”

Freedom? Liberty? From what has the Christian been freed? How far does our freedom in Christ extend? What of the law? Is liberty the same as license? Does this liberty protect the conscience of the Christian? Is civil disobedience godly?

We invite you to the 2015 Reformed Congregational Fellowship Pastors' Conference, April 14-16, at the Wonderland Conference Center, Sharon, MA, where these questions and more will be addressed in six presentations by colleagues serving in the pastorate. And they will serve as the stepping off point for a lively and collegial consideration of the Savoy's chapter 21, “Of Christian Liberty, and Liberty of Conscience.”

The Conference begins with Tuesday supper, April 14, and ends with Thursday lunch, April 16, 2015. The Salvation Army Wonderland Conference Center is at 10 Capen Hill Road, Sharon, MA. There are motel-like rooms and all linens are provided. Price includes all meals for those attending the entire conference. Attendees are warmly encouraged to invite others and to bring their wives. There is no childcare.
